Legend says Rodeo got its start when one rancher had a horse he said couldn't be rode and another rancher said they had a cowboy who couldn't be thrown.

Join the Clovis Rodeo as a partner on the road to the centennial celebration of an American Cowboy Tradition.

The Clovis Rodeo

In April it is all about rodeo in Clovis, California. Beginning the first weekend of the month festivities are kicked off with the Clovis Ranch Rodeo which opens the communities' annual celebration of their western heritage with a time for local ranchers to show their cowboy skills. Activities continue throughout the month with Jackpot Team Roping, a Golf Tournament, Rodeo Queen Competition and the nation's largest one day Blood Drive.

The Clovis Rodeo is always the last weekend of April and is the culmination of a month of activities celebrating the region's local ranching legacy. Once only a two-day rodeo, the all-volunteer, not-for-profit Clovis Rodeo Association now coordinates a high impact, action filled four-day rodeo full of family friendly entertainment. Clovis is one of the top three rodeos in California and top fifteen across the nation. Proceeds from the rodeo and related events benefit local charities.

Rodeo Fans

The Clovis Rodeo attracts fans from all ages and focuses on family friendly entertainment. More than 43 percent of rodeo fans will visit the four-day event more than once. The Rodeo fan is similar to the NASCAR fan and when they aren't at a rodeo they are watching sports on television or listening on the radio. They like action, can afford the ticket price and support those who support their rodeo. The average age of our fan is 36-55 with an average income of $45,000+. It's a mixture of both men and women. The affordable ticket prices, free parking and family friendly entertainment brought more than 40,000 visitors through the rodeo's gates for its four-day run in 2012. The rodeo arena grandstand and surrounding fan zone holds a capacity crowd of 7,500 to more than 12,000 depending on the performance. Fans are predominately from the local area but a number of attendees will travel to the community for this event from throughout the Central Valley, California and the Western United States.

A fan considers the Clovis Rodeo an annual event on their calendar. Despite the economy the Clovis Rodeo has continued to grow their attendance and the City of Clovis estimates the rodeo generates well in excess of $7 million in economic impact for the local and regional economy over just the four-day run of the rodeo itself.

99th Annual Rodeo

The line-up for the 99th Clovis Rodeo will begin on Thursday, April 25 with the return of the PBR Bull Riding Touring Pro-Division and some of the rankest bulls and toughest up-and-coming cowboys in professional bull riding followed by a rockin' good concert.

The Friday night rodeo action is also followed by a concert for rodeo fans in the arena. Two days of hoof-pounding rodeo action continue through the weekend, along with the popular Clovis Rodeo parade on Saturday, April 27.

Ticket prices range from $20 to $30 and are made available to fans by visiting the on-site ticket office, calling the ticket office at 559-299-5203 or going to www.clovisrodeo.com to make a purchase online. The rodeo grounds are located off of Clovis Avenue between Bullard and Shaw in the heart of downtown Clovis. Parking at the rodeo grounds is free of charge.

100 Years of Tradition – the way rodeo was, is and always will be

In 2014 those lucky partners will be able to share in celebrating an American Cowboy Tradition in Clovis. Options are now available for rodeo partners to secure their position as a Centennial Clovis Rodeo Sponsor. Beginning with a gala in September of 2013 there will be a series of events and advertising opportunities for sponsors celebrating the rodeo's road to 100 years of American Cowboy Tradition. Priority for sponsorships, seating opportunities and participation at all events will be given to those Centennial Sponsors in 2014.

Clovis Rodeo Association

The all-volunteer, not-for-profit Clovis Rodeo Association (CRA) has 700 members. More than $150,000 in proceeds from the Clovis Rodeo and related events coordinated by CRA members benefit local charities annually, including 4-H, FFA, Clovis Schools, Clovis Police Activities League, California High School Rodeo Foundation, Make-A-Wish Foundation, Break the Barriers, Boy Scouts of America, Marjorie E. Radin Breast Care Center at Clovis Community Medical Center, Central California Blood Center and Majoree Mason Center of Clovis
